

HEALTH TECHNOLOGY ASSESSMENT: POST-MARKETING SURVEILLANCE AND PERFORMANCE-BASED PAYMENT OF INNOVATIVE THERAPIES

TRAINING WORKSHOP FOR HEALTHCARE PROFESSIONALS,
HEALTH AUTHORITIES, ACADEMIA AND INDUSTRY

24 FEBRUARY 2018

LANDMARK CREEK HOTEL, PLOVDIV

DRAFT PROGRAMME
09.00 – 09.30	Registration & Welcome coffee
SESSION I
09.30 – 10.00	Introduction of participants
10.00 – 10.45	Rumen Stefanov	Budgetary impact of innovative therapies on public funds: how to address and sustain it
10.45 – 11.30	Borislav Borissov	Funding breakthrough therapies – pathways and strategies.
11.30 – 12.15	Dan Greenberg	Postmarketing surveillance of innovative medicinal therapies in Israel
12.15 – 12.30	Interactive discussion: HTA and sustainability
12.30 – 13.30	LUNCH
SESSION II
13.30 – 14.15	Francis Arickx	The BeNeLuXa collaboration: framework, objectives, activities
14.15 – 15.00	Marc Van De Casteele	Postmarketing surveillance of innovative medicinal therapies in Belgium
15.00 – 15.30	Interactive discussion: HTA and international collaboration
15.30 – 16.00	COFFEE BREAK
SESSION III
16.00 – 16.45	Edmund Jessop	Postmarketing surveillance of innovative medicinal therapies in the UK
16.45 – 17.30	Ranganath Lakshminarayan	How expert centres can contribute to real-world evaluation of drugs for rare disease
17.30 – 18.00	Interactive discussion: HTA and real-world data
18.00 – 18.30	Farewell notes & Award of participation certificates

ORGANIZED BY: Centre for Health Technology Assessment and Analyses, Institute for Rare Diseases
Faculty of Public Health, Medical University of Plovdiv

www.raredis.org